

Adult Sunday School

9:30 - 10:20 am

Sojourners: Downstairs Northside Room #1

Our senior age ministry class enjoys engaging in Bible study, prayer, and laughter! The blend of light-hearted humor and serious Bible exploration ensures there's never a boring week.

Lighthouse: Downstairs in Fellowship Hall

This class come from a range of age groups. Many are just stepping into the role of grandparents, but they all share the common experience of managing work, family, and living a Christian life in a society that often tests their faith. They actively engage in discussions on how to incorporate Scriptures into their everyday lives.

Homebuilders: Downstairs Northside back of the Youth Room

This class is a space where everyone can connect over the matters of marriage and family in a chaotic world! It aids individuals and couples in traversing the challenging phases of life through Bible study and Christian fellowship.

The Bridge: Downstairs Room #8 off the Fellowship Hall

This class is a testament to our belief that Jesus is our bridge to overcoming the world. With the intention of encouraging and nurturing each other, our class aims to bridge the generation gap. We focus on learning about God's plans for us and our class comprises of individuals from college age up to middle age.

Young Married Couples: Downstairs Northside Room #2

This class is aimed at young married couples and provides a Wonderful opportunity for couples to connect with others couples in the church embarking on a life of commitment to each other and Jesus Christ.

Ladies Bible Study Class: Conference Room off the Sanctuary

These women have supported each other through their spiritual path, experiencing life together and sharing the happiness and struggles of daily life. They are present for each other, whether they're engaging in a deep Bible study or dedicating time for prayer, embodying the teachings of Jesus in their lives.

multiply

partnering workshop

Saturday, April 27th • 8:30am-3:00pm
Fellowship Hall

Snacks and Lunch provided

Sign up in South Foyer by April 8th

Come and experience something new!
This is an opportunity you won't want to miss!

As we continue to develop as empowered disciples, this workshop is designed to teach us how to link our churches with our multicultural communities, missionaries, national leaders, and churches in other countries. The day is packed with inspiration, encouraging stories from international workers, and discussions on how to improve as a missions partner. The workshop will be led by Multiply Mission Mobilizers Stephen Humber and Joanna Chapa, along with international workers Carmen Owen and Nasser al Qahtani.

Stephen Humber

Joanna Chapa